JUDGMENT — Full Text of the judgment

Mukundakam Sharma, J.

1. Being aggrieved by the common judgment and order dated 17.04.2001 passed by the Division Bench of the High Court of Calcutta in Appeal Number 462 and 463 of 1992, allowing the appeals filed by the respondent against the judgment of a learned Single Judge, these civil appeals have been preferred where special leave was granted. Since both these appeals involve similar questions of law and facts and arise out of the same impugned order, we propose to dispose of both these appeals by this common judgment and order.

1. This is an application agains ... rders of the Courts below convicting the petitioner under Sec six months' rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 30 and in default of payment of the fine to further rigorou shortly stated, is that in a proceeding f ... of a decree a notice under Order 21, Rule 22, Civil P. named Rameshwar Marwari who was one ... number of defendant judgment-debtors in a mortgage act service said to have been effected on Rameshwar Marwari on 18th June 1941. In that matter the petitioner i alleged 'that' at the material time Rameshwar Marwari was on pilgrimage at Badrinath in Garhwal Estate. Late that the service report against him and the affidavit in support of the service sworn to by the petitioner, were which the notices appear to have been served. The executing court held a preliminary enquiry, and, in th against his proposed prosecution. He alleged that he did not personally know Rameshwar Marwari, that there he identified a Rameshwar Marwari on enquiry made from other persons named.

2. The Subordinate Judge, in whose court the execution proceedings were pending, accepted the explanati complaint against him. Against his orders refusing to file the complaint, Rameshwar Marwari went up in app Judge of Muzaffarpur who directed it to be heard by the Additional District Judge. After hearing the parties, th be filed against the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner was placed on his trial and convicted and sentenc orders of his conviction and sentence by the Courts below, the petitioner moved this court in its revisional ju heard by a single Judge of this court before whom the point was raised apparently for the first time that the conviction, had not been made by the competent authority within' the meaning of Section 195 (3), Criminal P. not subordinate to the court of the Additional District Judge. Reliance was placed upon the decision of Varma
