How to Access Scopus:

Step 01:

To access Scopus please go to our library website <http://library.bracu.ac.bd/> and click on “Database A-Z” tab marked with Red Square

The screenshot displays the homepage of the Ayesha Abed Library at BRAC University. The header includes the university logo, the text 'AYESHA ABED LIBRARY', and a search bar. A navigation menu contains links for HOME, ABOUT, SERVICES, RESOURCES, EBOOKS, DOWNLOADS, and CONTACTS. The main content area features a search interface with tabs for 'Search', 'Classic Catalogue', 'Databases A-Z' (highlighted with a red square), and 'Institutional Repository'. Below the search bar are input fields and buttons for 'Find' and 'Advanced'. There is also a section for 'EBSKO Discovery Service (Trial Access)' with a search button and radio buttons for 'Keyword', 'Title', and 'Author'. To the right, there is a section for 'Institutional Repository @ BRACU' with a circular logo and text encouraging users to check out thesis papers. The footer contains four service tiles: 'My Account', 'MyAthens', 'Library Timings', and 'Ask a Librarian'.

Step 02:

On “Database A-Z” please click on alphabet “S”

The screenshot displays the homepage of the Ayesha Abed Library at BRAC University. The header includes the university logo, the library name, and a search bar. A navigation menu lists various sections. The main content area features a 'Databases A-Z' tab, a search interface with an alphabet list where 'S' is highlighted, and a Turnitin@BRACU announcement. What is Scopus

Scopus launched in November 2004. It is the largest abstract and citation database of peer-reviewed literature: scientific journals, books and conference proceedings with bibliometrics tools to track, analyze and visualize research. Updated daily, Scopus delivers the most comprehensive overview of the world's research output in the fields of science, technology, medicine, social sciences, and Arts & Humanities.

Step 04:

When Hinari webpage opens click on Login

The screenshot shows the Hinari website interface. At the top right, there are language options: عربي, 中文, English, Français, Русский, and Español. The Hinari logo is on the left, with the tagline 'Research for Health'. A search bar is located below the language options. A red box highlights the 'Log in' button in the top right corner. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column contains a navigation menu with items: About Hinari, Access the content, Eligibility, Partners, Training materials, Promoting Hinari, and Contributions. The middle column features the 'Hinari Access to Research for Health programme' section, which includes a description of the program and links to 'Map of country breakdown 2016' and 'Eligible Countries 2016'. Below this is the 'Research4Life/INASP Advocacy Competition' section, which includes a logo and text about the competition. The right column contains a 'Give to Hinari' section, a 'Portuguese Hinari website' section, and an 'Other Sister Programmes with' section, which includes logos for 'research4life' and 'GORA'.

News
The Research4Life User Portals will be undergoing routine server maintenance during the afternoon Central European time on 10-November-2016. You may experience brief periods of disruption in your access. We apologize for the inconvenience.
We are currently experiencing technical difficulties with the resources from the following publishers: Australasian Medical Publishing Company, Lancet, Medicines Complete (BNF), also Springer and Schattauer (PDFs only).

Step 07:

In the Database list click on “SCOPUS”.

The screenshot shows the Hinari website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Hinari logo and the text "Research for Health". To the right, there are language options: عربي, English, Français, Русский, Español, and Português. Below the logo, it says "Logged in from: Bangladesh".

On the left side, there is a sidebar menu with links: Hinari, About Hinari, Access the content, Eligibility, Partners, Training Materials, and FAQs. Below this is a yellow box that says "Register for Hinari" and "Sign up your institution for research access".

The main content area has a "Content Home" button and a "Find by:" dropdown menu with options: Subject, Language, and Publisher. Below this is the "Browse databases" section, which has two tabs: "Accessible Content" and "All Items".

Under the "Accessible Content" tab, there are two messages: a green checkmark icon followed by "You have full access to this content through Hinari." and a red exclamation mark icon followed by "You do not have full access to this content through Hinari." Below these messages is a pagination bar showing "1 to 25 of 28" and navigation arrows.

The main list of databases includes:

- African Journals Online
- AIM (African Index Medicus)
- Bill Tracker
- BLDS Index to Development Studies
- CINAHL
- Directory of Open Access Journals Search
- Environmental Index
- Food Science and Technology Abstracts - (1999 - 2014)
- General Case Digest
- Global Health Archive (1910 - 1972)
- Google Scholar
- Halsbury's Laws Index
- Halsbury's SI Citator
- Halsbury's Statutes Citator
- IMSEAR (Index Medicus for South-East Asia Region)
- Informit Health Collection
- IRIS (WHO Digital Publications)
- Joanna Briggs Institute EBP Database
- Key OJ Material
- LILACS (Latin Am. & Carib. Center on Health Sci Info)
- Popline
- Scopus (Elsevier) (highlighted with a red box and a red arrow pointing to it)
- Specialist News Analysis
- Summon-HINARI Search
- UK Act Summaries

At the bottom of the list, there is another pagination bar showing "1 to 25 of 28" and navigation arrows. To the right of the "Scopus (Elsevier)" entry, there is a blue box with the text "Please Click to Continue" and a red arrow pointing to the "Scopus (Elsevier)" entry.

Step 08:

In Scopus home page you can search your desired information using different search options

The screenshot displays the Scopus Document search page. At the top, the Scopus logo is on the left, and navigation links for Search, Sources, Alerts, Lists, and Help are on the right. Below the navigation bar is a dark blue header with the text "Document search" and a link to "Compare journals".

The main search area includes a search bar with the text "Search for... E.g., 'heart attack' AND stress" and a dropdown menu for "Article Title, Abstract, Keywords". Below the search bar are options to "Add search field" and "Limit to:". The "Limit to:" section has two radio buttons: "Published" (selected) and "Added to Scopus in the last 7 days". The "Published" option has a date range from "All years" to "Present" and a "Document Type" dropdown set to "ALL".

Under "Subject Areas", there are four checked boxes: "Life Sciences (> 4,300 titles .)", "Health Sciences (> 6,800 titles . 100% Medline coverage)", "Physical Sciences (> 7,200 titles .)", and "Social Sciences & Humanities (> 5,300 titles .)".

On the right side of the search area, there are four promotional cards: "Learn more about how to Improve Scopus", "Stay up-to-date on Scopus. Follow @Scopus on Twitter", "Watch tutorials and learn how to make Scopus work for you", and "Get citation alerts pushed straight to your inbox".

At the bottom of the page, there are three columns of links: "About Scopus" (What is Scopus, Content coverage, Scopus blog), "Language" (日本語に切り替える, 切换到简体中文, 切换到繁體中文), and "Customer Service" (Help, Contact us).
